GOVERNMENT NEGOTIATES AUTO DEALER SUPPORT FOR PUBLIC TRANSPORT SECTOR

St. George: October 6, 2021: The Ministry of Infrastructure Development, Public Utilities, Transport and Implementation is continuing its efforts to provide further support to the public transport sector.

The Ministry has initiated a programme of support through businesses to offer relief to bus operators to purchase tyres, batteries, automotive parts and lubricants.

To date, four auto part dealers have pledged their support.

Discount Auto Parts is offering 15% off on all parts for buses, effective October 1, until further notice.

Jonas Browne & Hubbard (G'da) Ltd is providing 12.5% discount on Torque and Farroad tyres and Power Max batteries from October 1 to November 15, 2021.

Quality Services Ltd., for the period, October 1 – December 31, 2021, is offering a discount of 15 – 20% on auto parts, batteries, windscreens, front, rear and side glasses.

Geo. F. Huggins & Co (G'da) Ltd will also make available discounts and best prices on all Nissan Urvan differential parts and up to 20% on all other Urvan parts. In addition, the company is offering all bus operators, regardless of vehicle brand, a volume discount on tyre purchases, up to 12% for a full set.

The Ministry of Transport, and by extension, the Government of Grenada expresses sincere gratitude to all participating businesses for providing critical support to the public transport sector, and encourages all bus operators to take full advantage of these offers.

Bus operators and commuters are also encouraged to be vigilant and to follow the COVID-19 health and safety protocols issued by the Ministry of Health.
